

THEME OF THE CONFERENCE

VECTOR BORNE DISEASES – Challenges in 21st Century : Their Global Impacts and Strategic Management

Sub themes

1. Parasite resistance to anti-malarials, new drugs and disease management.
2. New biology: Genomics, Proteomics, Genetics and other aspects
3. Epidemiology & disease burden including economic burden
4. Community involvement in disease control
5. Biology and ecology of vectors
6. Transmission biology
7. Vector control : challenges and opportunities
8. Climatic and environmental determinants
9. Neglected vector borne tropical diseases
10. Vector borne diseases in Rajasthan
11. General topics related with vector & vector borne disease

Note : Authors must mention the Sub-theme in their abstract

ABSTRACT & POSTER

1. Abstract should be in about 250 words
2. Font type : Times New Roman; Font size 12 pt.
3. Title Font type : Times New Roman; Font size 12 pt. Bold.
4. Author's Name : Surname followed by initials with space and without points between surname and initials; if authors are more than one their names should be separated by comma.
5. Affiliation : Authors name should be followed by institutional affiliation. If more than one institute are involved they should be indicated by superscript Roman numerals.
6. Presenting author's name should be indicated by a *.
7. Please indicate (on the top right hand corner in 10 font size) the theme and sub theme in which your abstracts falls.
8. Abstract should be in Microsoft document.
9. Please name the file after first author. If more than one abstract is being submitted by the same first author then use different suffix.
10. Abstracts of only registered (by 30 June, 2013) delegates will be processed.
11. Email your abstracts as MS WORD document to osicov12@gmail.com.
12. Poster size should be 36 inches x 24 inches.

XII INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON VECTOR AND VECTOR BORNE DISEASES

9 - 11 September, 2013

Organized by

DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY, University College of Science
 MOHANLAL SUKHADIA UNIVERSITY
 UDAIPUR 313001 (RAJASTHAN) INDIA

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF VECTOR BORNE DISEASES BHUBANESWAR (ORISSA)

About Conference

12th International conference on Vector and Vector Borne Disease is being organized first time in Rajasthan by Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur and National Academy of Vector and Vector Borne Diseases (NAVBD, Bhubaneswar, Orrisa). Vector Borne Diseases remain influential to this day filling hospitals, suppressing economic of nations and interrupting industrial operations where it remains endemic. They are becoming potential threat to human health and economy globally. An integrated vector control programme that involves assessment, ongoing surveillance, targeted treatment and management is necessary to mitigate the risk. This conference will be dedicated to vector and vector borne diseases, covering from basic to applied to operational aspects. The conference will provide a platform for academics, scientists, pharmaceuticals, medical and public health researchers experts and common people to join hands to fight with such devastating vector borne diseases.

About National Academy of Vector and Vector Borne Diseases

NAVBD was established and registered under society act (Regn. No. 19767/199 of 1994-95 under Society Registration Act XXI of 1860) in 1994. The academy is a non profit organization dedicated to (i) advance and promote the knowledge on Vectors and Vector Borne Diseases, (ii) increase the scientists and members of the academy doing research work on vectors and vector borne diseases and assist them as and when possible, (iii) foster fraternity among the members of the academy, (iv) hold National and International Seminars / Symposiums / Workshops to exchange knowledge on recent advances in the field of vectors and vector borne diseases, (v) publish proceedings public newsletters to disseminate the knowledge on vectors and vector borne diseases and, (vi) create awareness on vectors and vector borne diseases among general public. So far the academy has conducted 11 symposia, the last symposium was hosted by Regional Medical Research Centre for Tribles (RMRCT), Jabalpur in October, 2011. The outcome of the conference provided important basis for many policy decisions in the area of vector borne diseases. The XII International conference to be held at Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur will also invite the subject experts of International and National repute in the field of Malaria and other vector borne diseases, Bio markers and Arbovirology, making this conference on excellent platform to discuss important issues pertaining to vector borne diseases, and highlight new discoveries in this field especially on tribal belt.

About Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur

Mohanlal Sukhadia University (erstwhile Udaipur University) at Udaipur (Rajasthan, India) is a U.G.C. recognized multi-faculty, affiliating state university (Autonomous State University of Govt. of Rajasthan) established by an Act in the year 1962 to cater the needs of higher education in Southern Rajasthan. The university has 33 departments under four constituent colleges. The university has more than 180 affiliated colleges from districts of Udaipur, Banswara, Dungarpur, Sirohi, Rajasmand, Chittorgarh, Pratapgarh with an enrolment of over 1,00,000 students. The university is located in the lap of Aravalli hills largely dominated by tribal populations.

Udaipur is directly connected by air with International airports of New Delhi and Mumbai. Buses from almost every part of India come to Udaipur throughout the day.

AWARDS

The National Academy of Vector Borne Disease with the support of industries, has instituted several awards in recognition of the outstanding research contributions made by the scientists in the field of vectors and vector borne diseases. Nominations are invited for the following awards. The awards will be presented during the symposium.

1. Vestergaard Frandsen Award for Vector Control: The award comprising cash 2,00,000 (Rs. Two lakhs) is to be given to active researchers who are nationals of any SAARC member country and have contributed significantly in the field of understanding the mechanism of insecticidal resistance, vector bionomics and control. The cost of travel and other expenses of the recipient and the medallion will be borne by Vestergaard Frandsen.

2. Bayer Environmental Science Award : The award consisting of Rs. 1,00,000 (Rs. One lakh) in cash to be given to a well established scientist having working experience in India and who has made an outstanding contribution in any field of vector borne disease preferably in the vector/disease management aspect. In exceptional cases, India nationals working abroad of foreign scientists may also be considered for the award provided their work has made significant contribution in the understanding and control of vector borne diseases in India. The award is open in all fields of science related to vectors and vector borne diseases. The cost of travel and other expenses of the recipient and medallion will be borne by the Bayer Environmental Science.

3. Biotech International Limited Award for excellence in Promotion of Biocontrol of Vectors : Biotech International Limited, New Delhi have initiated the above award comprising of Rs. 1,00,000 (Rs. One lakh) and a citation. This will be awarded to an eminent Indian Scientist for outstanding contribution in the field of biological control of vectors in the recent years. The cost of travel and local hospitality shall be borne by Biotech International Limited.

4. "National Academy of Vector Borne Diseases" Awards : There will be Two awards (a medal and a citation) for the outstanding contributions in the field of Vector Borne Disease, one for work related to Environmental aspects and other on molecular Biology.

Nominations/Applications with full Biodata of nominee and relevant informations may please be sent to the following address so as to reach them on or before 30th April, 2013.

For awards in Sr. No. 1-3 : Dr. B. N. Nagpal, Scientist –E, National Institute of Malaria Research (ICMR), Sector 8, Papankalan, Near Dadadev Temple, Dwarka, New Delhi – 110077

For Awards in Sr. 4 : Dr. Manoranjan Ranjit, General Secretary, Regional Medical Research Center. Chandrashekharpur, Bhubaneshwar 751023
